MARIE CURIE HELPER is the name of a new volunteer befriending service being developed across West Yorkshire and Craven, North Yorkshire. Marie Curie Helper volunteers make a commitment to visit people living with a terminal illness for up to three hours each week, offering visits in the home or trips out into the community. If you are interested see the poster at the back of church or phone 0800 304 7411 or mariecurie.org.uk/helper

Below are the parish finances for last year (2018-19) and a comparison with the previous financial year (2017-18). Of interest is a fall in the offertory collection and subsequent Gift Aid claims. In addition in 2017-18 there was an income of £35,000 from the sale of St Edmund's and the consequent rise in the parish assessment.
